Fowlmere Flyer

A HINTON HELLO

We have a very busy week ahead this week, with Roald Dahl dress up day tomorrow and Kingfisher's overnight residential trip to Burwell House on Wednesday and Thursday, followed by the School Council and House Captain elections on Friday.

As part of our big question 'What makes Britain Great?' and our key concept of democracy it is important that all pupils are given first hand experience of preparing and delivering a speech to their peers and taking part in elections (which we make as near to real life voting as possible). All pupils will become members of the School Council; giving them regular opportunities to discuss school life and vote for action or improvements. The elected leaders of the school council will take forward those ideas and make them a reality!

ROALD DAHL DAY

On Tuesday 12th September, we would like to invite children to dress up as their favourite Roald Dahl characters. This could be anyone from Mr & Mrs Twit to the Fantastic Mr Fox ..... The choice is yours.

We would prefer outfits made at home instead of store brought where possible .

HARVEST FESTIVAL

Our Harvest Festival assembly will be on the 22nd September but to the school only. We would like to ask for donations that will be taken to Fowlmere food bank on Friday 29th September.

Please can we ask for any donations of dried food items to be dropped at the school between the 22nd and 29th September .
